Part 5 Missions Covenant

We are ambassadors for Christ (2 Corinthians 5:20), representing the Lord Jesus and engaged in the work of God overseas. We go as an extension of the Presby family. On the missions project, we work together in full fellowship and equal partnership with the host church(es)/Christians. Therefore, we are called to:

1. Be followers of Jesus Christ.

"That if you confess with your mouth, "Jesus is Lord," and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead., you will be saved. For it is with your heart that you believe and are justified, and it is with your mouth that you confess and are saved." Romans 10:9-10

2. Be faithful, available and teachable.

Serve wholeheartedly, as if you were serving the Lord, not men. Ephesians 6:7

3. Be committed to teamwork.

Each of you should look not only to your own interests, but also to the interests of others.

Philippians 2:4

4. Abide by the Code of Conduct

Code of Conduct

1. I will conduct myself in accordance with the knowledge that this is GOD'S MISSION and not ours.
2. I will pray faithfully and fervently. What we accomplish on the missions field is the direct result of the effectiveness of our prayers leading up to and during the trip.
3. I will walk with the Lord, spending time with Him each day, reading and reflecting on His Word and cultivating a willing and obedient heart toward Him.
4. I will prepare myself for His work through training. I will be diligent in participating at all the meetings in preparation for the project and completing all assignments given at the training meetings, including reading assignments, Scripture memorization and writing my personal testimony.
5. I will keep my support group (such as my home fellowship group, discipleship/accountability group, prayer group and financial support group) informed.
6. I will be flexible, realizing that there are many unexpected incidents, both minor and significant, on the missions field. I will do whatever it takes to honor Jesus Christ, to love one another and to show the grace and truth of God to the world.
7. I will work with the host Christians in fellowship, united by the common goal of glorifying God in the spirit of "that you and I may be mutually encouraged by each other's faith" (Romans 1:12).

I, _____, have read the above Missions Covenant and will, by God's grace, abide by them for His glory on this missions project.
